Tuition includes trainer costs, background and course materials, one hour of individual executive coaching, and all coffee breaks. Fees do not cover airfare. Participants are responsible for their own travel arrangements and associated costs as well as any visa arrangements. Fees must be paid in US dollars prior to the start of the workshop. Please see the schedule for payment deadlines.

100% of the tuition will be refunded up to two (2) weeks before the workshop begins. After two weeks, there will be no refund, unless cancellation was necessary due to exceptional circumstances.

Qualified participants who are interested in receiving sponsorship or financial support can consider contacting the following agencies which have sponsored participants or participated in CDC training events: USAID country missions in Amman, Beirut, West Bank, Morocco and Egypt, UNICEF or UNDP offices, UNFPA, International Fund for Agricultural Development, or the European Union. Other specialized agencies such as UNRWA may also send staff or provide sponsorship.

Enrollment at all CDC International Executive Training Workshops is subject to availability and approval by CDC staff.

All applications will be reviewed by CDC.
